Product review conducted according to the policies and standards of USOA. USOA is proud to promote organic standards that were independently developed by USOA and verifies said standards for USOA Organic Certification independent of any other organization or standards. USOA certification is not a product endorsement, and cannot be construed as such. All information relating to the product was considered to be accurate as provided by the supplier. Final decisions on the acceptability of a product for use in a certified organic system are the responsibility of the end user. It is the operator's responsibility to properly use the product, including following any instructions or restrictions.
